Write a report on today’s presentation. Include in the report who was presenting, what the topic of the presentation was, what was interesting and/or informative about the talk, and how your views on the topic have either changed or been reinforced by the talk.