Instructional Objectives

- Be able to define the time value of money.
- Be able to define the concept of equivalence.
- Be able to give the single payment formula for compound interest in mathematical and functional notation.
- Define the terms in these equations.
- Uses these equations to calculate present or future values.